

新聞稿

2017年4月1日

8th Annual Vancouver Spring Show brought the house down with its original production.

When East meets West, Contemporary meets Traditional.

2017 bears great significance for Canadians as this is the year where we celebrate the 150th birthday of Canada! As a commemoration, top artists and performers from China, Canada and other countries have put forth their collective talents in the 8th annual Vancouver Spring Show.

Since 2010, Vancouver Spring Show successfully captured the attention of local media and community thanks to its high-impact, inspirational, and stunning performances. It has become a highly recognized event in local Chinese based community. Every year, Vancouver Spring Show sets a new height for its original, artistry, multi-cultural, and large-scale production.

Artists from Canada and China created a night of art and culture to celebrate the season of spring, a season of creation and vitality. This event produced by the team members of the Beijing Olympic Games opening ceremony and Vancouver's talented production team. On November 30 2016, United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO) formally adopted a resolution to China to declare the "24 solar terms" to be included in the UNESCO List of representative works on the intangible cultural heritage of mankind. The 8th Annual Vancouver Spring Show is bringing audience an incredible show using transitional 24 solar terms as the concept of the event..

Also inspired by other Chinese cultures, poetry, costumes, the Flying Art of Dunhuang, and other intangible cultural heritage; Vancouver Spring show presented an highly original and visually stunning production with various performance, such as Chinese opera, indigenous instruments performance, modern dance, folk dance, musicals..., certainly brought audience an unforgettable evening.

Vancouver Spring Show gathered more than 20 top directors, designers, theatre production experts and professional performers to work together and collaborated each one's talented and diversity. This original production of artistry combining wide range of literary forms, world music, cross-border artists, cultural costumes, multi-media stage design to transfer Queen Elizabeth Theatre into a dream-like stage, a stage of spring .

8th Annual Vancouver Spring Show continuously gains supports from BC government and City of Vancouver, as well as China Consulate. Furthermore, there are letters and video from various governors to show support for the event, such as Canada Prime Minister Justin Trudeau, Consul general Liu Fei, MP Jody Wilson-Raybould, Defence Minister Harjit Sajjan, MP Alice Wong, MP Joyce Murray, MP Jenny Kwan, MP Dianne Watts, BC Prime Minister Christy Clark, MLA Linda Reid, MLA Suzanne Anton, MLA Teresa Wat, MLA John Yap, MLA Sam Sullivan, Vancouver Mayor Gregor Robertson, Surrey Mayor Linda Hepner, Richmond Mayor Malcolm Brodie, and Coquitlam Mayor Richard Stewart.